

Brom Sulaiman

• WEB & CREATIVE DIGITAL MEDIA •

Summary

I am a web designer and developer with over seven years experience. I recently emigrated permanently to Australia with my family from the UK. I have worked for an international Marketing company, an award winning internal leadership development platform, a Customer Service consultancy, a motorsport company, a business startup and as a Freelance.

I have a BSc in Media Technology from Thames Valley University in West London. I have experience in web design, graphic design, video editing and sound design.

I am passionate about all things online and digital ranging from beautiful code compliant websites to user interface and experience design. I am looking for a new and exciting challenge in this new chapter in my life. I would be a valuable member to any design and development team.
